WELCOME TO NPP 2022!

This year, the Nordic Public Procurement forum (NPP 2022) will be focusing on new case law, sustainability and corruption in public procurement, plus challenges during/after COVID-19 and the war in Ukraine - and a lot more!

The event is packed with various activities focusing on current trends in public procurement. You can join our workshops, one or both conference days, or our brand-new study trip around Copenhagen.

In the evening, you can also join our networking sessions with dinner, wine tasting and a hyggelig Christmas candle light walk in the city centre.

We look forward to seeing you in wonderful Copenhagen!

Best regards,
Team Nohrcon

PS. If you want the waiting time to be a bit more fun - then try our new interactive learning experience: THE PUBLIC PROCUREMENT GAME. It's totally free of charge and available in English and Danish - and soon many other languages, including German, French, Norwegian, Swedish, Polish etc.

WORKSHOP 1 CONTRACT AWARD IN EU PP

22 November // Copenhagen

In this exciting workshop we look closer at contract award in EU public procurement – and especially the practical issues in determining the best bid! The moderator is Prof. Emeritus of Public Procurement, Jan Telgen, University of Twente and Co-Director of the PP Research Centre (NL).

WORKSHOP 2 FRAMEWORK AGREEMENTS

22 November // Copenhagen

In this hands-on workshop, we cover the fundamentals of framework agreements and dive into new developments in this field. The workshop is moderated by Marta Andhov, Ph.D. and Associate Professor at the Faculty of Law at University of Copenhagen (DK).

CONFERENCE DAY 1

23 November // Copenhagen

The first day of the main conference will investigate new legislative developments in green Public Procurement (PP), procurement law vs. competition law, sustainable PP used strategically, foreign direct investments, the fight against corruption in PP, brilliant failures (!) + much more.

CONFERENCE DAY 2

24 November // Copenhagen

On the second day we continue with in-house arrangements, current trends in EU procurement policy, new case law on award procedures and remedies, efficient procurement supervision, implications of COVID-19 and the war in Ukraine, green procurement in practice.

NEW! STUDY TRIP IN COPENHAGEN

25 November // Copenhagen

Learn more about public procurement live in Copenhagen! We are visiting the Danish Parliament and The European Environment Agency for on-site procurement presentations. As a bonus stop, we are also going on a guided tour in the historic Danish Parliament.

ADDITIONAL DAYS AT NPP 2022

22/11: WORKSHOP ON CONTRACT AWARD IN EU PP: PRACTICAL ISSUES IN DETERMINING THE BEST BID

Don't miss out on this hands-on workshop that gives you a great overview of existing contract award methods – their legal background, weights and scores. You will be testing your new knowledge through practical exercises and learn all about relative scoring, minimum quality levels – as well as the experienced moderator's favourite: awarding on value.

22/11: WORKSHOP ON FRAMEWORK AGREEMENTS

In this exciting workshop, we will cover the fundamentals of framework agreements and dive into new developments in this field. You will learn all about the different types of framework agreements and methods of call off award. We will also look at new case law on the subject, since the growing complexity of framework agreements and the lack of additional, more specified rules on frameworks in Member States' legislation have led to increased case law.

25/11: STUDY TRIP – TOUR DE PROCUREMENT IN CPH!

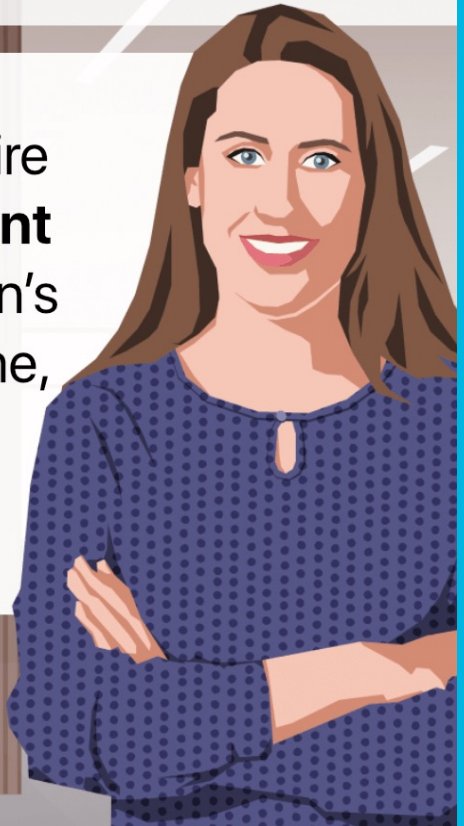

NEW!

Join us for our public procurement study trip in Copenhagen! A brand new concept where we discuss public procurement in different places around the city with local procurement practitioners. The tour includes on-site procurement presentations at The European Environment Agency and The Danish Parliament, where we are also going on a guided tour in the historic buildings after a nice launch in the famous Snapstinget. One more visit still TBA.
