

MASPE is located in the North West of Italy, near the city of Turin. It has more than 30 years of experience in the packaging industry and is a major manufacturer supplying the beverage, confectionery, cosmetic and others FMCG sectors.

The core business of MASPE is providing; engineering, project management and the manufacturing of packaging solutions to meet the requirements of customers who are seeking a valued, long term partner. MASPE designs and manufactures custom built, infed conveyor systems and secondary packaging with high-performance technology providing quality, flexible, automated systems.

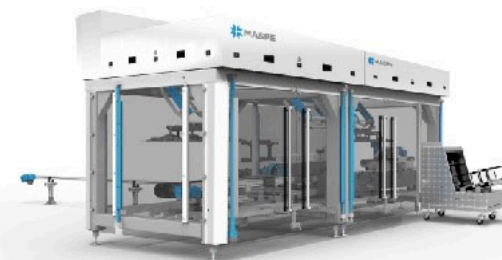

The MASPE philosophy and approach is to create Modular, Flexible, Automation creating a wide range of solutions to meet the specific requirements of our customers, achieved by adapting our core designs. We provide multi-functional machines which can be integrated with other functions such as; Forming, Filling and Closing.

MF Lite Series

MF Visio Series

MF Power Series

