TARGET GROUP

Actors and decision-makers at all levels with connections and interest in transport, construction, and logistics, both in the private and public sector. Tungt.no is available on desktop, tablet, mobile and Facebook. We can also offer co-advertising with the website Mascus.no where we also have defined target groups within agriculture, forestry machines and park and garden machines. It is possible to advertise to our target groups both on our own websites and in the Google Display network (major Norwegian websites, local newspapers, Youtube, etc.)

CONTENT MARKETING

Content Marketing is an advertising product where you as an advertiser publish your own article on Tungt.no. Article is delivered "finished", or we can help you get in touch with people who can make the articles. We then adapt the article so that it can be published on tungt.no or in combination with our magazines. The article may contain fact boxes, and links linked to your own website. We also support video.

A Content article will be marked "Advertisement" in accordance with editorial responsibility and PFU rules.

DESKTOP

MOBIL

The image displays two versions of the tungt.no website. On the left is the desktop view, showing a navigation menu with 'Nyhets', 'Transport', 'Anlegg', and 'Logistik'. Below the menu are several ad placements: a 'Top banner' at the top, a 'Board' with a large image of a truck, and several 'Sky' and 'Box' ads. On the right is the mobile view, showing a simplified layout with a 'Top banner' at the top, followed by 'Board', 'Sky', and 'Box' ads. The mobile view also features a 'tungt.no' logo and a navigation menu.
