New Automation Technology BECKHOFF

What is Beckhoff Skills Share?

An outstanding opportunity to meet colleagues from different industries working with similar technologies as you.

Why should I join?

- to gain knowledge from like-minded people utilizing the same technologies in different industries
- to share your experience with Beckhoff technology, using OOP
- to get new inspiration with the aim to make your daily work smoother
- to be up to date on today's topic

Who can join?

You are already familiar with the topic of the day: OOP and have professional experience in working with this.
You want to deep-dive into the topic and share your insights and thoughts.
