

The kitchen in Källby ...a look behind the scenes

For 85 years, the Swedish family company, Gunnar Dafgård, has specialized in good and easy cooking for busy families who appreciate classic, homestyle courses.

It is from the kitchen in Källby that they prepare the high-quality and tasty meals.

And even though they measure their ingredients in ton instead of gram, they never compromise with their core values...

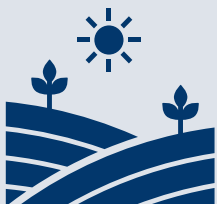

High quality

Good taste

Innovation

Sustainability

Dafgård

Gunnar Dafgård chose DAN-doors as supplier for a large order on doors and sliding doors that are to guarantee a safe and hygienic environment for the 1.400 m² large domicile.

It was important to find a supplier, who:

Had the same focus on high quality as Dafgård.

Could meet the high hygiene and safety standards applicable to the food industry.

Could deliver different solutions for different needs.

With 170 new door solutions, including:

- Fire- and safety doors
- Automatic sliding doors
- High speed doors

...Dafgårds can now continue their tireless efforts to develop new meals for modern, quality-conscious consumers all over the world.
