1. OBLIGATIONS OF THE SUPPLIER

For the items which are included in Appendix B, the Supplier shall no later than 30 Days after the Commencement of the Agreement provide DALO with the information, which are marked with a yellow color in the heading in the EXCEL spreadsheet template.

For items procured by the Supplier as prime Supplier from a subcontractor or vendor, the Supplier shall in the EXCEL spreadsheet include the name of the original manufacturer(s) and the drawings or part numbers and applicable technical data of such manufacturer(s), including draft identification data.

The EXCEL spreadsheet is attached to this NATO Codification clause as Appendix D.2 and shall after completion be mailed to the following official e-mail address:

Codification@mil.dk

The Supplier acknowledges that DALO is effectively deprived of the opportunity to use the Deliverables, if the codification information is not received as agreed, and it is therefore expressly agreed and understood that any delay in delivery of this documentation shall be regarded as a Delay in the delivery of all the Deliverables and shall entitle DALO to make use of all rights and remedies stated in the Agreement, including the right to liquidated damages in accordance with clause 10 cf. terms and conditions (Appendix A).

Throughout the term of the Agreement, the Supplier shall provide updated information regarding all modifications or design changes made to items which have been or should have been codified.
