The Magazine Plastforum–Plastics technical monitoring for the industry

Plastforum is the magazine in Sweden that meets the polymer industry's and its customer's needs for ongoing reporting on developments in plastics, rubber and composite technology, regarding the machines, materials, methods and people.

Our subscribers are professional decision makers. 50% are CEO, owners or in a managerial position. 25% are engineers and 20% have sales and marketing responsibility. With these more than 15,000 recipients, Plastforum - printed news magazine, e-magazine, website (plastforum.se) and newsletter - is the obvious marketing channel for the plastics industry and its suppliers.

With a total of more than 55 years of experience in the plastics industry and intensive interaction with the market, Plastforum will help you keep track of what is happening at the forefront of the industry.
